

Holden Europe is now open for business with a new branch in Charnay-lès-Mâcon, France. Holden Vintage and Classic customers across mainland Europe will no longer pay import duties and taxes on purchases as the new location overcomes many of the import/export problems introduced post-Brexit.

"As a customer, it's important that the price you see is the price you pay. The introduction of import duties and taxes to purchases from mainland Europe after Brexit caused a great deal of uncertainty and disruption. With Holden Europe now open in France, our customers in mainland Europe will once again be able to buy with confidence and enjoy the huge range of classic parts for British marques on offer at Holden." Julian Barratt, CEO, SNG Barratt Group.
